PART 2 INTERPRETATION AND GENERAL DEFINITIONS

2.1 Definitions

- 2.1.1 "Academic Staff Member" (ASM) means a person employed in a teaching position or a non-teaching academic position. The term ASM includes academic staff members, senior academic staff members (SASM) and principal academic staff members (PASM) unless it is used to refer to the basic salary grade. Terms such as Tutor and Lecturer are generic terms which can refer to Academic Staff Members.
- 2.1.2 "ASM" see "Academic Staff Member".
- 2.1.3 "Clinical Teaching" means off-campus health science teaching involving patient care.
- 2.1.4 "Duty" refers to any time when an academic staff member is required by the employer to be on duty at the polytechnic or at another location.

The fulltime ordinary hours of work shall be 37.5 hours per week to be worked between 7am and 9pm on any given days from Monday to Saturday.

5.5 Workload Provisions for Specific Types of Position

5.5.1 Proportional Employees

- (a) All TTH, associated workload, and the weekly duty hours maxima set out above will be reduced according to the predetermined proportion of fulltime employment for a proportional employee.

- (b) Notwithstanding clause 5.4(a) a proportional employee may consent to work fulltime for a proportion of the year equal to the proportion for which they have been employed; provided that if the ASM's employment is prematurely terminated payment will be made for the necessary number of additional days to bring the workload back to the predetermined proportion of fulltime.

5.5.2 Non-Teaching ASMs

- (a) A non-teaching ASM shall not be required to use more than 80% of available duty time for defined tasks and functions of the position.

- (b) On receiving this request the Dean shall within five working days:
- Review the hours of work and the workload of the ASM
 - Compare the workload to that of other ASMs within the section and the wider faculty where appropriate
 - Respond to the ASM setting out the actions to be taken (if any), with an explanation.

NOTE: The five working days' response time is intended as the timeframe in which the concerned ASM must have his/her concern acknowledged. It may not be possible, for practical reasons, to action a remedy within the five working days. In such cases an indicative timeframe will be provided as part of the Dean's response.

- (c) If the ASM is not satisfied with the response the matter may be placed before a workload review committee. The committee will comprise two Management representatives appointed by the Chief Executive and two TEU representatives. One of the members will be appointed by the Chief Executive to convene the committee.

Interim Situation

Where a staff member has asked for a workload review the disputed workload will continue as if no difference existed until the matter is resolved through the procedure outlined above. However, where urgency is established to the satisfaction of the Chief Executive the process will be initiated within 14 days of the formal request being submitted.

The committee shall make a determination which shall be binding (notwithstanding the legal remedies which an aggrieved staff member may choose to pursue).

In this way the employee will receive time and a half for the actual hours worked plus payment for the remainder of the day at the relevant daily rate. An alternative holiday shall be taken in lieu on a later day agreed between the employer and employee.

If agreement cannot be reached, the alternative holiday may be taken on a date determined by the employee, taking into account the employer's view as to when it is convenient and giving the employer 14 days notice. After 12 months the employer may require the employee to take the alternative day on a specified date with 14 days notice or the employee may request the day be cashed up.

6.3.3 Annual Leave

Employees are entitled to five weeks of annual leave in each leave year to be taken subject to the following:

Payment for annual and discretionary leave will be in the pay that relates to the period during which the holiday is taken.

6.3.6 Calculation of Annual and Discretionary Leave Taken

Five days of leave taken will be recorded as a complete week of leave. A period of leave commences on the first working day of absence and ends on the last working day of absence.

6.3.7 Annual and Discretionary Leave for Employees with Short Service

- (a) Employees with less than 12 months' full service in any one year will have leave calculated at 21 percent of the period worked, less any leave taken.

Holiday pay for part-time ASMs will be paid in accordance with the Holidays Act, 2003. Payment for statutory holidays will be made only if the ASM would have worked the day in question as part of their normal timetable.

6.3.9 "Four for Five" Employment Option

EIT will implement a "four for five" employment option. This option will be available to all fulltime permanent employees who may apply to enter an employment relationship under which, with no substantive changes to duties, they would receive 80% of their fulltime base salary and after each four years of work take a fifth year off on 80% of base salary. If the employee is accepted into such a scheme:

- (a) Any special responsibilities and/or market allowances due to the ASM during the four years worked shall be paid in full and no such allowance shall be paid during the fifth year.
- (b) An ASM may withdraw from the scheme at any time up to three months before the fifth year off work is due to apply.

- (d) Employees appointed before 02 March 1999
 - (i) Those employees with accrued sick leave in excess of 260 days as at 02 March 1999 will retain their current entitlement.
 - (ii) Those employees with accrued sick leave of less than 260 days as at 02 March 1999 will retain their current entitlement and commence accruing five days of sick leave per six months from their next anniversary or half yearly anniversary date, accruing to a maximum of 260 days in accordance with clause 6.4.1(c).
 - (iii) Those employees who have no accrued sick leave as at 02 March 1999 will be entitled to five days sick leave until their next anniversary of appointment and will then accrue leave in accordance with clause 6.4.1(c).
- (e) Any statutory or institute holiday which occurs within an unbroken sick leave period is not counted for the purposes of calculating sick leave.
- (f) In exceptional circumstances the employer may grant leave with pay in excess of the entitlement in subclasses (c) and (d) above in anticipation of future entitlements. On termination of employment, any amount owing as a result of the employee taking leave in advance may be deducted from the final pay.
- (g) A fulltime staff member who works five days a week will have a maximum of five days sick leave deducted for a week of absence.

An employee who has, because of pregnancy, temporarily reduced proportionality will be paid the six weeks leave at the rate and proportion that existed immediately prior to the temporary reduction in hours.

Where an employee elects to resign because of birth/adoption, a lump sum in lieu of the six weeks paid parental leave will be paid on termination.

If, for any portion of the paid parental leave period, the rate of salary payable is later the subject of a retrospective increase, a sum representing the applicable weekly increase shall be paid to the employee on application.

Where the other options are inappropriate to discharge the surplus the option of severance will be made available. The above options will continue to be available to employees declared surplus until the employees' last day of employment.

 - (ii) an ongoing allowance for two years equivalent to the difference between the present salary and the new salary (this is abated by any subsequent salary increases).

These provisions will not apply to a situation where the employee is offered a position at a reduced proportion from their previous position. In those circumstances the employee may elect termination of employment and full severance, or take the reduced position with a proportional severance payment equivalent to the proportion lost.

- (b) Where the new job is at a location outside the local area, the employee will be entitled to relocation expenses as set out in clause 8.6 (a) of this Agreement.

The employer may, following application from the employee, offer the option of retraining with financial assistance. The total cost to the employer, including any salary and training costs will not exceed 110% of the value of the severance payment the employee would be entitled to.
