

PROGRAMME

JULY 22, 2016

LECTURE THEATRE BLOCK, OLD GOVERNMENT BUILDINGS, WHITMORE ST, WELLINGTON

- 4.30pm REGISTRATION AND REFRESHMENTS
 5.30 WHAKATAU AND REFRESHMENTS
 6.00pm WELCOME - TEU President Sandra Grey
 6.10pm KEYNOTE ADDRESS, Rt Hon Jim Bolger ONZ, Chancellor of the University of Waikato

6.30pm Roundtable One

WHAT DOES AN INNOVATIVE AND PRODUCTIVE TERTIARY EDUCATION SECTOR LOOK LIKE?

Cat Pausé (TEU - Chair); Chris Whelan (Universities NZ); Linda Sissons (Metro ITPs); Linsey Higgens (NZUSA); Josh Williams (Industry Training Federation); Brent Sincock (Te Wānanga o Aotearoa).

JULY 23, 2016

- 8.30am REGISTRATION AND CUPPA
 9.00am INTRODUCTION: WHAT PLACE DOES THE UNION HAVE IN THIS DEBATE?
Sandra Grey and Sharn Riggs (TEU)
 9.30am PRESENTATIONS

ONE	TWO
Luke Strongman Plus ça change, plus c'est la même chose?: Redesigning the tertiary education organisation	John Egan The digital university: innovation versus efficiency
Judith Hunter and Margaret Franken Asserting the University	David Parsons Digital and Collaborative Learning for Tertiary Transformation
David Cooke Contract Culture: Master and Servant in Tertiary Research	Charlotte Mildon Kaupapa Māori principles and Online Teaching in Tertiary Education.
Shirley Barnett Filling the Gap: A Māori student mentoring programme	Kathryn MacCallum, Stanley Frielick, Acushla Dee Sciascia Learners and mobile devices: A framework for enhanced learning and institutional change

VOICES FROM TERTIARY EDUCATION

A CONVERSATION ABOUT PRODUCTIVITY AND INNOVATION IN TERTIARY EDUCATION

JULY 23, 2016

LECTURE THEATRE BLOCK, OLD GOVERNMENT BUILDINGS, WHITMORE ST, WELLINGTON

10.45am MORNING TEA

11.00am PRESENTATIONS

THREE	FOUR
Peter Coolbear Exploring the value of professional standards frameworks in tertiary education	Margaret Taurere Kia mataara kei waipukengia: Dam whitestreaming
Carol Soal The Journey to Student Centricity. Are we nearly there yet?	Laurent Antonczak and Thomas Cochrane Communities of practice: positive peer and student-teacher relationships
Vicki Little, Sandra Smith & Richard Brookes New Realities in the Tertiary Sector: What are they, and how should we respond?	Chris Holland A New Model: Apprenticeship Education for New Zealand
Tim Hazledine The bloating of the academy: organisational structures and top-pay inflation in NZ universities 1984-2014	Victoria University of Wellington Student Association Students and the academy

12.30pm LUNCH

1.30pm Roundtable Two

A LOOK AT THE EDUCATION NEEDS OF SOCIETY AND ECONOMY

Cheryl Smeaton (TEU - Chair); Trevor McClinchey (NZ Council of Christian Social Services); Millie Douglas (Career Development Association of New Zealand); Eric Crampton (NZ Initiative)

2.45pm AFTERNOON TEA

3.00pm PRESENTATIONS

FIVE	SIX
QPEC panel The tertiary inquisition: maintaining and extending neoliberal control in education	Dianne Forbes It's in the blend: A mixed media approach to innovation and productivity in blended learning
David Cooke Systems of internal and external control within the tertiary sector	Mark McGuire Open education in New Zealand
Jane Kelsey The Education Act at the heart of it all	Noeline Wright New developments in Initial Teacher Education graduate paper
Liz Gordon Technology in the future of tertiary education	Jonathan Oosterman, Charles Sedgwick and Sandra Grey Autonomy under pressure: surveying the sector

4.30pm PANEL - TEU senior leaders wrapping up

Phil Edwards, James Houkāmau, Cat Pausé, Cheryl Smeaton

5.00pm FAREWELLS

