CONSTITUTION OF THE NEW ZEALAND TERTIARY EDUCATION UNION TE HAUTŪ KAHURANGI O AOTEAROA INCORPORATED

1 Name and Commencement

1.1 The name of the society is The New Zealand Tertiary Education Union Te Hautū Kahurangi o Aotearoa Incorporated (in this Constitution referred to as the 'Union').
1.2 This Constitution will take effect as the rules of the Union from the date they are registered by the Registrar of Incorporated Societies.

2 Whāinga

2.1 The Union's whāinga will be:
2.1.1 Tū kotahi, tū kaha: We are strong and unified; we are committed to actions which will leave no-one behind; we create spaces where all people can fully participate, are fairly represented, and that foster good relationships between people.
2.1.2 Ngā piki, ngā heke: We endure through good times and bad; we work to minimise our impact on the environment; we foster ahikā - the interrelationship of people and the land, including supporting tūrangawaewae - a place where each has the right to stand and belong.
2.1.3 Awhi atu, awhi mai: We take actions that seek to improve the lives of the most vulnerable; we give and receive, acknowledging that reciprocity is fundamental to strong and equitable relationships; and we work to advance approaches that ensure quality public tertiary education for all.
2.1.4 Tātou, tātou e: We reach our Goals through our collective strength and shared sense of purpose, which are supported through participatory democratic decision-making processes and structures.

3 Definitions

3.1 Refer to Schedule One for the meaning of words and phrases used in this Constitution.

PURPOSES AND PRINCIPLES

4 Purposes | Mātāpono

4.1 The purposes of the Union will be:

4.1.1 Mana Tiriti

The Union will advance a shared kaupapa and a collective tikanga to ensure strong relationships between Māori and Tāngata Tiriti members. This Constitution will be interpreted and applied having regard to this tikanga/culture and the articles of Te Tiriti o Waitangi which will be implemented in the policies and practices of the Union.

4.1.2 Mana Mahi

The Union will advance the industrial and professional needs of Members by; negotiating collective agreements with employers on pay and conditions; advocating for democratic rights in all workplaces, and advocating for academic freedom in the tertiary education sector. The Union will promote and protect the interests of the members in appropriate cases through taking personal grievances and/or collective action.

4.1.3 Mana Taurite

The Union will promote equity in all parts of the tertiary education sector, and work to ensure equal employment opportunities for all workers.

4.1.4 Mana Mātauranga

The Union will protect and enhance the provision of quality tertiary education in Aotearoa New Zealand as a public good that is publicly funded, publicly controlled, and publicly governed in the interests of all who live in Aotearoa New Zealand. The Union will advocate for the empowerment of staff in decisionmaking and academic freedom in the tertiary education sector. The Union will advocate for a tertiary education system that is accessible to all; acknowledges, values, and validates Mātauranga Māori and cultural provision; and which advances life-long learning for Māori and Tāngata Tiriti.

4.1.5 Mana Taiao

The Union will work to foster ahikā - the interrelationship of people and the land, including supporting a sense of tūrangawaewae for all which fosters a sense of belonging. The Union will take action to transform the relationship of the Union and the tertiary education sector with Te Taiao (Papatūānuku and Ranginui) by supporting climate justice, just transitions and kaitiakitanga of the natural environment, in relationship with mana whenua and mana Tāngata.

4.1.6 Such other purposes as are ancillary or related to the purposes stated above.

5 Powers, Act and Regulations

5.1 The Union will have the statutory powers given to it under the Act and the powers of a natural person to carry out its activities.
5.2 Nothing in this Constitution authorises the Union to do anything which contravenes or is inconsistent with the Act, any regulations made under the Act, or any other legislation.

6 Registered Office

6.1 The Registered Office of the Union will be at such place in Aotearoa New Zealand as the Council from time to time determines.
6.2 Any changes to the Registered Office will be notified to the Registrar of Incorporated Societies in a form and as required by the Act.

Contact Person

7.1 The Council will appoint at least one (1), usually Te Pou Ahurei | The National Secretary, and no more than three (3) individuals as the Contact Person for the purposes of the Act.
7.2 The Contact Person must be at least 18 years of age and ordinarily resident in Aotearoa New Zealand.
7.3 The Contact Person or People will be the person (or people) whom the Registrar can contact when needed.
7.4 The position of Contact Person may be held separately or in conjunction with any office in the Union.

MEMBERSHIP

8 Membership

8.1 The Union will consist of three classes of membership, being Members, Associate Members, and Life Members/Honorary Life Members.
8.2 Membership of the Union will be open to anyone directly employed in the tertiary education sector, except that no employer of staff in the tertiary education sector (chief executives, vice chancellors, or equivalent positions) will be eligible for membership.
8.3 Member: A Member is an individual admitted to membership by Council under this Constitution and who pays a subscription set by the National Conference. Members of the Union are entitled to participate in democratic decision-making, stand for election in accordance with this Constitution, request support, and seek advice.
8.4 Associate Member: An Associate Member is an individual who has ceased to be a Member because they are no longer an employee in the tertiary education sector, who is admitted to Associate membership by Council under this Constitution, and who pays a reduced subscription set by Council. Associate Members will not have the right to stand for office, vote, or seek representation.
8.5 Life Member/Honorary Life Member: A Life Member/Honorary Life Member is an individual appointed to Life/Honorary Life membership by Council under this Constitution and who does not pay a subscription or other fee for membership. Life Members/Honorary Life Members will not have the right to stand for office, vote, or seek representation.
8.6 For the purposes of the following Rules, Member refers only to Member as defined in Rule 8.3.

9 Applications

9.1 People wishing to become a Member of the Union must make an application in the form required by the Union from time to time, and will sign a declaration agreeing:
9.1.1 To promote the interests and purposes of the Union, and to abide by the Constitution and policies of the Union;
9.1.2 That the Union is not obligated to act on their behalf in any matter which arose prior to their membership application;
9.1.3 That the Union's authorised representatives (the paid Staff of the Union) are to act as their sole representative in respect of their current and future collective employment agreement, to settle, subject to ratification, the terms of any applicable collective employment agreement through negotiation with the relevant employer;
9.1.4 That the Union's authorised representatives (the paid Staff of the Union) are to act as their sole representative in exercising any of the rights and powers given to them under the Employment Relations Act 2000 or otherwise;
9.1.5 That their rights and obligations in respect of negotiations under the Employment Relations Act 2000, the Privacy Act 2020, or otherwise, in relation to their employment will be in accordance with the Constitution and policies of the Union; and,
9.1.6 That the above authorities will continue until they withdraw them in writing or cease to be Members of the Union.
9.2 People wishing to become an Associate Member must make an application in the form required by the Union from time to time, and will sign a declaration agreeing to promote the interests and purposes of the Union and to abide by the Constitution and policies of the Union.
9.3 Submitting an application to become a Member or Associate Member in accordance with Rule 9.1 or 9.2 as applicable will be deemed to constitute consent to becoming a Member or Associate Member.
9.4 Following receipt of an application for membership as referred to in Rule 9.1 or 9.2 above, the Council will consider and advise the applicant whether their application has been successful. The Council is not required to provide its reasoning for approving or not approving an application. An appeal can be made in writing to the Appeals Subcommittee.
9.5 Membership begins from the point at which the applicant is advised that their application has been successful.

10 Obligations and Rights of Members

10.1 Members, Associate Members, and Life Members/Honorary Life Members of the Union will have the rights, privileges and responsibilities set out in this Constitution.
10.2 Every Member, Associate Member, and Life Member/Honorary Life Member will provide the Te Pou Ahurei | The National Secretary with their full contact details in accordance with Rule 67.1 and promptly advise the National Secretary of any changes to those details.
10.3 Membership does not confer on any Member, Associate Member, or Life Member/Honorary Life Member any right, title, or interest (legal or equitable) in the property of the Union.
10.4 A Member, Associate Member, and Life Member/Honorary Life Member is only entitled to exercise the rights of membership afforded to their category of membership as set out in Rules 8.3, 8.4, and 8.5, including attending National General and National Special General Meetings, if all applicable subscriptions and any other fees have been paid to the Union by the due date, but no Member, Associate Member, or Life Member/Honorary Life Member is liable for an obligation of the Union by reason only of being a member of the Union.
10.5 The Council may decide what access or use Members, Associate Members, and Life Members/Honorary Life Members may have of or to any premises, facilities, equipment, or other property owned, occupied or otherwise used by the Union, including any conditions of and for such access or use.

11 Subscriptions and Fees

11.1 The annual subscriptions and any other fees for membership to the category of Member for the then current financial year will be set by the National Conference. Any change in subscriptions will take effect from the beginning of the Union's following financial year.
11.2 Annual subscriptions may be paid by salary deduction, or by automatic bank payment or direct debit to the Union's national bank accounts on an agreed basis.
11.3 The Council may, at its discretion, waive or reduce the subscription of any individual or group of members of the Union.
11.4 Any Member or Associate Member failing to pay an annual subscription or any other fees for membership for a period of two (2) calendar months will (without being released from the obligation of payment) have no membership rights and will not be entitled to participate in any Union activity until all the arrears are paid and ongoing payments reinstated. If such arrears are not paid within three months from the time the payment ceased, the Union will terminate the membership (without being required to give prior notice to that Member or Associate Member) in accordance with Rule 12.1.3.

12  Ceasing to be a Member

12.1 A Member, Associate Member, or Life Member/Honorary Life Member ceases to be a Member:
12.1.1 on death;
12.1.2 by giving written notice of their resignation to Te Pou Ahurei | The National Secretary of the Union which, unless otherwise expressed, will take effect 14 days after written resignation;
12.1.3 if that Member or Associate Member fails to pay any annual subscription or other fee for membership three (3) months after it has become due, in which case that Member or Associate Member will be deemed to have resigned their membership;
12.1.4 when they cease to be an employee in the tertiary education sector (in which case they may apply to become an Associate Member in accordance with this Constitution); or 12.1.5 upon termination of their membership following a dispute resolution process in accordance with this Constitution, with effect from the date of receipt by the Contact Person, or any subsequent date stated in the notice of resignation or notice of termination of membership.

13 Obligations on ceasing of Membership

13.1 A Member, Associate Member, or Life Member/Honorary Life Member who resigns or whose membership is terminated under this Constitution:
13.1.1 must, if applicable, notify their employer to stop any payroll deductions for payment of subscriptions or fees. If subscriptions or fees are paid by automatic bank payment or direct debit to the Union's national bank accounts, the Member/Associate Member is responsible for stopping payments.
13.1.2 remains liable to pay all applicable subscriptions or fees to the Union's next balance date;
13.1.3 will cease to be entitled to any of the rights of membership; and
13.1.4 will immediately return any property, including intellectual property, of the Union held by that person at the time of termination.
13.2 Ceasing to be a Member, Associate Member, or Life Member/Honorary Life Member will not exempt a person from liability in respect of any act or omission while that person was a Member, Associate Member, or Life Member/Honorary Life Member.

14 Membership Awards

14.1 The Council may confer the following National Awards on Members:
14.1.1 Life Membership;
14.1.2 Meritorious service to the Union;
14.1.3 Awards of excellence in the following categories:
(a) Supporting teaching and research;
(b) Academic freedom
(c) Professional integrity;
(d) Student learning and participation; and
(e) other professional achievements.
14.2 The Council may confer Honorary Life Membership on individuals who are not Members.
14.3 Nominations for National Awards can be made by:
14.3.1 the Council
14.3.2 any National Committee or Branch Committee; and 14.3.3 any National Network.
14.4 National Award nominations:
14.4.1 will be called for by Te Pou Ahurei \| The National Secretary no less than eight (8) weeks prior to the National Conference; and
14.4.2 must be received by Te Pou Ahurei | The National Secretary no less than six (6) weeks prior to the National Conference.
14.5 A Branch Committee may confer a Service Award to Members of that Branch Committee to recognise periods of 10,20 or 30 years of continuous membership.

35.1 The Union indemnifies each Officer against all losses and expenses incurred by them in carrying out their duties in relation to the Union except insofar as they contravene the Officer's duties under the Act or this Constitution.

REPRESENTATIVE GROUPS

36 Representative structures

36.1 There will be representative structures feeding into the governance bodies of the Union.

36.2 The representative structures comprise Branch Committees, National Networks, and Sector Groups.

BRANCH COMMITTEES

37 Formation of Branch Committees

37.1 A Branch Committee may be formed by application to the Council where there are 25 or more Members of the Union who are employed at a Worksite/Worksites with a common employer and who wish to apply to the Council to form a Branch Committee.
37.2 Council and National Committee Members have a right to sit ex officio on the Branch Committee covering their Worksite.
37.3 A current list of approved Branch Committees and the membership represented by each Branch Committee will be published on the Union's website from time to time.
37.4 Where membership of a Branch Committee falls below 25 Members of the Union, Council may review that Branch Committee to determine if there remains a legitimate basis for the existence of that Branch Committee in accordance with this Constitution, and may at its discretion disestablish any Branch Committee in accordance with this Rule 37.4

38 Function of Branch Committees

38.1 The functions of a Branch Committee will be to:
38.1.1 run local activities;
38.1.2 work with paid Staff of the Union to support Members covered by that Branch Committee;
38.1.3 engage in national and sector hui to ensure the voice of the local membership is represented in decision-making processes; and
38.1.4 meet regularly throughout the year to advance the purposes of the Union.
38.2 The quorum for Branch Committee meetings will be fifty percent (50\%) plus one of those elected to the Branch Committee.
38.3 Each Branch Committee will provide Council a report before the end of March each year setting out the membership of the Branch Committee and the activities overseen by it in the previous calendar year.
38.4 For the purposes of Collective Agreement negotiations, Members will be united into negotiating units under their relevant employer. All Branch Committees covered by an employer will work with the advocate (who is a paid Union staff member) to set up negotiation processes and select an appropriate negotiating team in accordance with the National Industrial Strategy.
38.5 For the purposes of all other processes conducted by an employer under employment legislation or a Collective Agreement, such as change management processes and institutional policy changes, all Members will be united into a single unit under the relevant employer and all Branch Committees covered by an employer will work with the paid Staff of the Union to coordinate the Union's response.

39 Branch Committee Delegates and Representatives

39.1 At the National Conference and National General Meeting (including any National Special General Meeting), each Branch Committee is entitled to one (1) vote per one hundred (100) Members belonging to that Branch Committee as at 30 June of the previous year.
39.2 For the purposes of voting at the National Conference and National General Meeting, each Branch Committee will appoint a Branch Committee Delegate to carry the vote of the Branch Committee.
39.3 Each Branch Committee may also appoint additional Branch Committee Representatives to attend the National Conference and National General Meeting as representatives of the Branch Committee, who will be entitled to be present but will have no voting rights. The number of permitted Branch Committee Representatives will be calculated on the following basis:

| Branch Committee membership  numbers | Branch Committee Representative  entitlement at National Conference |
| Up to 300 | 1 (plus Branch Committee Delegate) |
| Between 301 and 600 | 2 (plus Branch Committee Delegate) |
| Between 601 and 900 | 3 (plus Branch Committee Delegate) |
| Between 901 and 1200 | 4 (plus Branch Committee Delegate) |
| 1201 and over | 5 (plus Branch Committee Delegate) |

39.4 The election of Branch Committee Delegates and Branch Committee Representatives will, as far as possible, reflect the Union's commitment to Te Tiriti o Waitangi.

Funding of Branch Committee Activity

40.1 Each Branch Committee will receive a capitation levy of one week's subscription at the standard maximum subscription for each Member represented by that Branch Committee as at 30 June of the previous year, and calculated at the rate of the subscription for that year.
40.2 This capitation levy will be reserved for each Branch Committee in February of the following year for use for local Union activities approved by the Branch General Meeting and Branch Committee.
40.3 The use of capitation levy funds by Branch Committees will be in accordance with the authority delegated to them by the Council from time to time, in accordance with Rule 71.3.

41 Election of Branch Committee Positions
41.1 Members covered by a Branch Committee will elect a Branch Committee President or CoPresidents and a Te Uepū Representative who will collectively lead the Branch Committee.
41.2 Nominations for Branch Committee positions will be called five weeks before a Branch General Meeting allowing for a two-week nomination period, a three-week electioneering period where necessary, with the election held at the Branch General Meeting.
41.3 If the number of nominations for Branch Committee positions exceeds the required number to fill vacant positions, the Returning Officer(s) will run a secret ballot of all Members attending the Branch General Meeting and eligible to vote.
41.4 If no nominations have been received prior to the Branch General Meeting, nominations may be called for the vacant positions at the meeting by the designated Returning Officer(s) and the election process run in accordance with this Consitution.
41.5 Branch Committee positions that remain vacant at the close of the Branch General Meeting can be filled by the Branch Committee by appointment or some other process determined by the Branch Committee.

42 Term of Position
42.1 The term of office for Branch Committee Members will be one (1) or two (2) years as determined by that Branch Committee from time to time, beginning no sooner than four (4) weeks after the Branch General Meeting at which they are elected, and no later than 1 February in the year after their election.
42.2 In the event of a Branch Committee Member vacancy during a term, the Branch Committee will fill the vacancy by appointment, or some other process determined by the Branch Committee.

43 Branch General and Special General Meetings

43.1 Branch General Meeting: There will be at least every two (2) years a Branch General Meeting in September or October and open to all Members covered by a Branch Committee.
43.2 The business of a Branch General Meeting will be to elect the Branch Committee (where it is an election year in accordance with Rule 42.1), approve a budget for expenditure of capitation, and review the previous years' capitation expenditure.
43.3 The quorum for a Branch General Meeting will be:

| Members represented by Branch | Quorum |
| :--- | :--- |
| $25-80$ | $10 \%$ or 5, whichever is lower |
| $81-300$ | $10 \%$ or 15, whichever is lower |

58.2 Notice of all business to be conducted at National Conference will be given to all Registered Delegates not less than four (4) weeks before the date of the meeting.
58.3 National General Meeting: Not less than eight (8) weeks' notice will be given in writing to Members of the date of the National General Meeting, which will include notice of all business to be conducted.
58.4 Notice of all business of a National General Meeting will be given to all Members not less than four (4) weeks before the date of the meeting.
58.5 National Special General Meeting: The Council will give all Members at least five (5) days' Notice of a Special General Meeting.
58.6 The Notice of a General Meeting (National and National Special) must also include:
58.6.1 the nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting in sufficient detail to enable a Member to form a reasoned judgment in relation to it;
58.6.2 the text of any resolution or matter of business to be submitted to the meeting; and
58.6.3 the time and date and manner of the meeting.
58.7 A National Conference, National General Meeting, or National Special General Meeting and its business will not be invalidated simply because one or more Members do not receive the notice.

59 Quorum
59.1 The quorum for National Conference, National General Meetings, and National Special General Meetings will be fifty percent (50\%) plus one of those entitled to attend and vote.

60 Non-Members
60.1 The Council may extend an invitation to attend a Union meeting to observers (Members with no voting rights) and non-Members, at Council's discretion. Any such attendees may be granted an opportunity to speak at the invitation of the Chairperson or any other person presiding over the meeting, but will not be entitled to vote on any question.

ELECTIONS

61 Elections generally

61.1 Candidates for any position, all nominators, and all voters must be Members of the Union.
61.2 Only Members of relevant constituencies will be eligible to stand as a representative candidate for a constituency and to vote for the relevant representative positions, as set out in this Constitution.
61.3 All nominations for representative positions must be seconded by one Member from the relevant constituency, have the written consent of the nominee, and be accompanied by a signed biography of up to 500 words in either Te Reo Māori or Te Reo English (any translations will not contribute to the word count).
61.4 All nominees in elections and appointments will affirm at the time of standing or being appointed their commitment to advancing the purpose of the Union and to adhering to the Constitution of the Union.
61.5 In all elections, if the number of nominations does not exceed the required number to fill the relevant vacant positions, the candidates will be declared elected unopposed by the relevant Returning Officer(s).
61.6 Any candidate will be permitted to put forward a Scrutineer to attend the counting of any relevant election or ballot.
61.7 In all elections, candidates are permitted to run election campaigns but may not use the Union's resources or paid Staff of the Union's assistance in electioneering.
61.8 The failure for any reason of any Member to receive a notice of an election or ballot will not invalidate that election or ballot.

BALLOTS

62 Secret Ballots

62.1 Where a secret ballot of Members or a group of Members is required by legislation, except for strike ballots and those held during a National Conference, the Members concerned will be given at least three (3) calendar days' notice of the issue to be voted on, the name of the Returning Officer, and the date and time of the opening and closing of the Secret Ballot.
62.2 Ratification Ballots: All Members covered by the Collective Agreement to be ratified will be given at least three (3) calendar days' notice of the intention to hold the Secret Ballot.
62.3 Strike Ballots: Ballots for strike action can be called by Te Pou Ahurei | The National Secretary or their nominee with regard to any Collective Agreement negotiations in consultation with the relevant advocate and negotiation team. There is no requirement to give notice for a Strike Ballot.
62.4 Strike Ballots and Ratification Ballots will be decided by a simple majority of those Members bound by the Collective Agreement or Strike Ballot, and who are entitled to vote and do vote.
62.5 Members will be advised whether or not a Collective Agreement is ratified as a result of the Ratification Ballot.
62.6 Members will be advised whether a Strike Ballot is decided in favour of strike action or not.

RETURNING OFFICER

63 Returning Officer

63.1 Te Pou Ahurei |The National Secretary will nominate Returning Officer(s), who may be the paid Staff of the Union, for all ballots and elections provided for by this Constitution on a two-yearly cycle and have these approved by Council.
63.2 The Returning Officer(s) will be responsible for actioning and notifying Members of all voting processes. This includes notifying Members of the relevant ballot and election process and ensuring that no expression of an individual's opinion will be included on or with the voting papers distributed to Members, except for candidate biographies in the case of elections.
63.3 For matters other than elections, legitimately reached recommendations on the resolution being voted which has been reached by a democratic decision of National Conference, Council, National and Branch Committees, or National Networks, as well as any advice on operational implications from Te Pou Ahurei |The National Secretary, may be included material accompanying the voting papers.
63.4 As soon as possible after the conclusion of an election or ballot, the Returning Officer(s) will count the votes which will then be checked by any appointed Scrutineer and the Returning Officer(s) will then declare the result of the election or ballot.

64 Documentation
64.1 The Returning Officer(s) will take all reasonable steps to ensure that all documents from elections or ballots are preserved in the national office of the Union after the election or ballot. Te Pou Ahurei | The National Secretary will ensure that all such documents are kept at the national office for at least one year after the completion of the ballot or election or, where an inquiry is instituted in relation to a Secret Ballot or election, until at least two months after the determination of the inquiry.

65 Inquiry
65.1 A call for an inquiry into a Secret Ballot or election result can be made to the Appeals Subcommittee within 14 days of the declaration of the result of a ballot or election. The Appeals Subcommittee will investigate and if a claim is found to be valid, remedies may include recounting the votes, declaring the Ballot to be void, declaring a candidate not to have been elected, or declaring a new Ballot.

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

66 Conflicts of interest

66.1 An Officer (as defined in this Constitution) is interested in a Matter if that person:
66.1.1 may obtain a financial benefit from the Matter; or 66.1.2 is a relation of or close personal acquaintance of a person who may obtain a financial benefit from the Matter; or 66.1.3 may have a financial interest in a person to whom the Matter relates; or 66.1.4 is a partner, director, member of the board and/or committee, board member, or trustee of a person who may have a financial interest in a person to whom the Matter relates.
66.2 However, an Officer is not interested in a Matter:
66.2.1 merely because that person receives an indemnity, insurance cover, remuneration, or other benefits authorised under the Act; or
66.2.2 if that person's interest is the same or substantially the same as the benefit or interest of all or most other Members due to the membership of those Members; or
66.2.3 if that person's interest is so remote or insignificant that it cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to influence that person in carrying out their responsibilities under the Act or this Constitution; or
66.2.4 if that person is a member of a union and that person's interest is merely as an employee that will benefit from the union acting in the ordinary course of promoting its members' collective employment interests.
66.3 An Officer who is interested in a Matter relating to the Union must disclose details of the nature and extent of the interest (including any monetary value of the interest if it can be quantified);
(a) to the Council; and
(b) in a Register of Interests kept by Te Pou Ahurei | The National Secretary as referred to in Rule 69 below.
66.4 Disclosure must be made as soon as practicable after that Officer becomes aware that they are interested in the Matter.
66.5 Subject to the Act and any regulations made under the Act, an Officer who is interested in a Matter:
66.5.1 must not vote or take part in the decision of the Council relating to the Matter; and
66.5.2 must not sign any document relating to the entry into a transaction or the initiation of the Matter; but 66.5.3 may take part in any discussion of the Council and/or committee relating to the Matter and be present at the time of the decision of the Council (unless the Council decides otherwise).
66.6 If $50 \%$ or more of the Council are prevented from voting on the Matter under Rule 66.5, a National Special General Meeting must be called to consider and determine the matter.

71.2 All moneys received by or on behalf of the Union are to be paid to the credit of the Union's account at one of the registered banks in Aotearoa New Zealand.
71.3 All payments made by the Union will be authorised in accordance with delegated authorities that have been endorsed by the Council.
71.4 The Union's bank accounts will be operated upon by Te Pou Ahurei |The National Secretary, the Assistant National Secretaries, and the Finance Officer, or otherwise as determined by the Council from time to time.
72.1 Te Pou Ahurei | The National Secretary will keep accounting records which will be set out, in such manner as to enable them to be conveniently and properly audited.
72.2 The Finance Officer of the Union will prepare an annual income and expenditure account and an annual balance sheet.
72.3 If required by the Act or otherwise by law or if the Council determines it desirable, the Council will as soon as practicable after the end of the financial year of the Union cause the accounts of the Union to be audited by a chartered accountant appointed by the Council for that purpose (Auditor).
72.4 Every annual income and expenditure account and balance sheet will be signed by Te Pou Ahurei | The National Secretary and will, together with the Auditor's report on the accounts, be presented to the next Council meeting and the National General Meeting held after the date of the report.
72.5 A record of capitation expenditure will be provided by the Finance Officer to each Branch Committee for presentation at Branch General Meetings.
72.6 The Finance Officer will, after the end of the financial year, ensure that the Union complies with its reporting obligations, including to the Registrar of Incorporated Societies.

73 Balance Date

73.1 The Union's financial year will commence on 1 January of each year and end on 31 December (the latter date being the Union's balance date).

74 Staff of the Union

74.1 The Council will appoint one employee, that being Te Pou Ahurei | The National Secretary.
74.2 Te Pou Ahurei | The National Secretary will be responsible for all other employees employed by the Union.
74.3 All meetings of the Union will have paid Staff of the Union in attendance to provide advice and support. They will not have any voting rights.
74.4 One Tāngata Māori and one Tāngata Tiriti paid Staff of the Union chosen by the paid Staff of the Union will sit in attendance at Council meetings to provide a voice of paid Staff of the Union to Council. They will not have any voting rights.

75 Common Seal

75.1 If and while required by the Act, the Union will have a Common Seal. The Union will not be required to have a Common Seal once it has reregistered under the Act.
75.2 There will be a common seal of the Union which will be in the custody of Te Pou Ahurei | The National Secretary and will not be affixed to any document except in the presence of Te Tumu Whakarae \| The National President and Te Pou Ahurei |The National Secretary.
75.3 Every use of the seal will be reported to the Council for approval.
75.4 The seal will not be altered or renewed except by resolution of National Conference.

76 Execution of documents

76.1 Formal documents will be executed by Te Tumu Whakarae | The National President and Te Pou Ahurei | The National Secretary and any such execution will be reported to the Council.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

77 How a Complaint is Made

77.1 A Member (which for the purposes of Rules 77 to 86 will include an Associate Member and/or a Life Member/Honorary Life Member) or an Officer may make a complaint by giving to the Council written notice that:
77.1.1 states the Member or Officer is starting a procedure for resolving a dispute in accordance with this Rule 77;
77.1.2 sets out the allegation to which the dispute relates and whom the allegation is against; and 77.1.3 sets out any other information reasonably required by the Union.
77.2 A complaint made in accordance with this Constitution must relate to the Business of the Union.
77.3 The Council may make a complaint involving an allegation against a Member or an Officer by giving the Member or Officer a Notice in writing that:
77.3.1 states that the Council is starting a procedure for resolving a dispute in accordance with this Rule 77; and 77.3.2 sets out the allegation to which the dispute relates.
77.4 The information given under Rule 77.1.3 and 77.3.2 must be enough to ensure that a person against whom an allegation is made is fairly advised of the allegation concerning them, with sufficient details given to enable them to prepare a response.

78 Costs of Complaint

78.1 Without limiting Rule 85.1.4, a complainant will be required to meet their own costs of making a complaint.

79 Person Who Makes Complaint Has Right To Be Heard

79.1 A Member or an Officer who makes a complaint has a right to be heard before the complaint is resolved or any outcome is determined.
79.2 If the Council makes a complaint:
79.2.1 the Council has a right to be heard before the complaint is resolved or any outcome is determined; and 79.2.2 an Officer may exercise that right on behalf of the Council.
79.3 Without limiting the manner in which the Member, Officer, or Council may be given the right to be heard, they must be taken to have been given the right if:
79.3.1 they have a reasonable opportunity to be heard in writing or at an oral hearing (if one is held); and
79.3.2 an oral hearing is held if the decision maker considers that an oral hearing is needed to ensure an adequate hearing; and
79.3.3 an oral hearing (if any) is held before the decision maker; and
79.3.4 the Member's, Officer's, or Council's written statement or submissions (if any) are considered by the decision maker.
79.4 If both the person making the complaint and the person who is subject of the complaint are willing and able, those parties, together with the decision maker, may seek (and are encouraged to seek) to resolve the dispute in a face-to-face meeting abiding by the whāinga of the Union. The parties involved may seek support from Ngā Tumu Whakarae | The National Presidents to arrange a facilitator for such a meeting.

80 Person Who Is Subject of Complaint Has Right to Be Heard

80.1 This Rule applies if a complaint involves an allegation that a Member, an Officer or the Council (the Respondent):
80.1.1 has engaged in misconduct;
80.1.2 has breached, or is likely to breach, a duty under this Constitution or the Act; or 80.1.3 has damaged the rights or interests of a Member or the rights or interests of Members generally.
80.2 The Respondent has a right to be heard before the complaint is resolved or any outcome is determined.
80.3 If the Respondent is the Council, an Officer may exercise the right on behalf of the Council.
80.4 Without limiting the manner in which a Respondent may be given a right to be heard, a Respondent must be taken to have been given the right if:
80.4.1 the Respondent is fairly advised of all allegations concerning the Respondent, with sufficient details and time given to enable the Respondent to prepare a response;
80.4.2 the Respondent has a reasonable opportunity to be heard in writing or at an oral hearing (if one is held);
80.4.3 an oral hearing is held if the decision-maker considers that an oral hearing is needed to ensure an adequate hearing;
80.4.4 an oral hearing (if any) is held before the decision-maker; and
80.4.5 the Respondent's written statement or submissions (if any) are considered by the decision-maker.
80.5 If both the person making the complaint and the person who is subject of the complaint are willing and able, those parties, together with the decision maker, may seek (and are encouraged to seek) to resolve the dispute in a face-to-face meeting abiding by the whāinga of the Union. The parties involved may seek support from Ngā Tumu Whakarae | the National Presidents to arrange a facilitator for such a meeting.

81 Investigating and Determining Dispute

81.1 The Council must, as soon as reasonably practicable after receiving or becoming aware of a complaint made in accordance with this Constitution, ensure that the complaint is investigated and determined, including by convening the Dispute Resolution Subcommittee as required.
81.2 Disputes must be dealt with under this Constitution in a fair, efficient, and effective manner, with minimum disruption to the Union's activities.

82 Council May Decide Not to Proceed Further with Complaint

82.1 Despite Rule 81.1, the Council (or Dispute Resolution Subcommittee) may decide not to proceed further with a complaint if, after investigating the complaint in accordance with this Constitution, they determine that:
82.1.1 the complaint is trivial;
82.1.2 the complaint does not appear to disclose or involve any allegation of the following kind:
(a) that a Member or an Officer has engaged in material misconduct;
(b) that a Member or an Officer, or the Union has materially breached, or is likely to materially breach, a duty under this Constitution or the Act; or
(c) that a Member's rights or interests or Members' rights or interests generally have been materially damaged.
82.1.3 the complaint appears to be without foundation or there is no apparent evidence to support it;
82.1.4 the person who made the complaint has an insignificant interest in the matter;
82.1.5 the conduct, incident, event or issue giving rise to the complaint has already been investigated and dealt with under this Constitution; or 82.1.6 there has been an undue delay in making the complaint.

83 Council may refer complaint

83.1 Despite Rule 81.1 the Council may refer a complaint to:
83.1.1 the Dispute Resolution Subcommittee or an external person to investigate and report; or 83.1.2 the Dispute Resolution Subcommittee, an arbitral tribunal or an external person to investigate and make a decision.
83.2 The Council may, with the consent of all parties to a complaint, refer the complaint to any type of consensual dispute resolution (for example mediation, facilitation or a tikanga based practice).
83.3 For the avoidance of doubt, if other legislation requires the dispute to be dealt with in a different manner, the Rules that relate to disputes in this Constitution will have no effect to the extent that they contravene, or are inconsistent with, that other legislation.

84 Decision-makers

84.1 A person may not act as a decision-maker in relation to a complaint if two (2) or more members of the Council or Dispute Resolution Subcommittee consider there are reasonable grounds to believe that the person may not be:
(a) impartial; or
(b) able to consider the matter without a pre-determined view.
84.2 Where a complaint made under clause 77 relates to Tāngata Māori and Tāngata Tiriti relations, the Council must ensure the decision-maker is made up of equal numbers of Tāngata Māori and Tāngata Tiriti.

85 Resolving Disputes

85.1 The decision-maker may, among other things:
85.1.1 dismiss a complaint in accordance with Rule 82;
85.1.2 make such directions as the decision-maker thinks appropriate (with which the Union and Members will comply), including but not limited to:
(a) requiring the parties to go into a facilitated process to resolve and/or reconcile;
(b) censuring a Member;
(c) setting up training, mentoring or supervision for the Member concerned; and/or 85.1.3 uphold a complaint; and
(a) reprimand or admonish the Member; and/or
(b) suspend the Member from any office they hold for a specified period; and or
(c) determine the Member can no longer hold office or stand for office; and/or
(d) suspend the Member from membership for a specified period; and/or
(e) expel the Member; and/or
85.1.4 order the complainant (if a Member) or the Member complained against, to meet any of the Union's reasonable costs in dealing with a complaint.

Appeals

86.1 Persons who make a complaint, and/or who are the subject of a complaint (and/or any other Members who are materially and substantially involved in a complaint) will be entitled to appeal any decision made in relation to that complaint if there were procedural improprieties, or mistakes of fact or application of this Constitution, in the dispute resolution process.
86.2 Appeals will be made to the Appeals Subcommittee convened in accordance with Rule 22.
86.3 The Appeals Subcommittee will be made up of three (3) to six (6) Council Members who:
86.3.1 will be impartial and able to consider the matter without a pre-determined view;
86.3.2 will be appointed to act as part of an Appeals Subcommittee on an 'as needed' basis in response to any appeal; and 86.3.3 will consider the appeal in any way that they see fit, but always in accordance with the principles of natural justice and the Union's purposes/whāinga.

FINANCIAL GAIN

87 No Financial Gain

87.1 The Union will not be carried on for the financial gain of any of its Members, provided that:
87.1.1 A Member may receive a fee and/or honorarium in accordance with Rule 21.1 or otherwise where authorised by Council in accordance with Rule 71.3; and
87.1.2 a Member, Associate Member, and Life Member/Honorary Life Member may receive reimbursement for reasonable expenses legitimately incurred when attending Union meetings and activities; and 87.1.3 a Member, Associate Member, and Life Member/Honorary Life Member may receive incidental benefits (such as trophies, prizes, koha, or discounts on products or services) in accordance with the Union's Purposes.

AMALGAMATION

88.1 The Union may be amalgamated in accordance with the provisions of the Act.
88.2 Any amalgamation proposal (as defined in the Act) must be approved by a resolution agreed to by a two-third majority of all Members entitled to vote and voting on the question. This clause 88.2 modifies section 194(2)(a) of the Act.

WINDING UP

89 Process

89.1 The Union may be wound up, liquidated, or removed from the Register of Incorporated Societies in accordance with the provisions of the Act.
89.2 Te Pou Ahurei | The National Secretary will give Notice to all Members of the proposed motion to wind up the Union, or remove it from the Register of Incorporated Societies and such Notice will include:
89.2.1 details of the National Conference, National General Meeting, or National Special General Meeting at which any such proposal is to be considered;
89.2.2 the reasons for the proposal; and
89.2.3 any recommendations from the Council in respect to such notice of motion.
89.3 Any resolution to wind up the Union or remove it from the Register of Incorporated Societies must be passed by a $75 \%$ majority of the Members present and voting.

90 Surplus assets

90.1 If the Union is wound up, or liquidated, or removed from the Register of Incorporated Societies, no distribution will be made to any Member, and if any property remains after the settlement of the Union's debts and liabilities, that property must be given or transferred to another Not-For-Profit Entity as determined at a National Conference, National General Meeting, or National Special General Meeting.

ALTERATIONS TO THE CONSTITUTION

91 Amending this Constitution

91.1 The Constitution of the Union may be amended by a Remit properly notified to Members not less than four (4) weeks before the date of a National Conference.
91.2 A Rule amendment Remit tabled during a National Conference must receive a two-thirds majority before being put to the meeting.
91.3 Any resolution to amend or replace this Constitution at a National Conference must be passed by at least a two-third majority of the Members present and voting.
91.4 When a Rule amendment is approved by National Conference it will be notified to the Registrar of Incorporated Societies in the form and manner specified in the Act for registration and will take effect from the date of registration.

Tiriti refers to the representation as the non-Māori national copresident.
i. Māori member(s) of the Union;
ii. Branch Committee Māori representative(s); and
iii. National Network of all Māori members.

The term acknowledges some of the union's history as the title was formerly used by ASTE Te Hau Takitini o Aotearoa for their Māori members at large. Accordingly Te Uepū was adopted to (a) differentiate between the Māori members on Council and National Committees (Te Toi Ahurangi) and Māori members at large; and (b) honour the late Toby Rikihana who gifted this name to ASTE Te Hau Takitini o Aotearoa Māori members.

92 Tertiary Education Sector means all organisations and institutions in which workers are responsible for the oversight and provision of post compulsory education and training, and for research. This includes public and private organisations.

93 Tiakina Te Taiao means the Māori name for the climate action National Network. Tiakina means to care, conserve, guard, protect, and save. Taiao is all things to do with Papatūānuku - both nature and physical environment. Utilising these concepts, Tiakina Te Taiao refers to the individual responsibility and collective actions needed in the duty of care for our natural and physical environment.

94 Tikanga/kawa means Māori customs/protocols, procedures, lore, methods, practices, and conventions.

95 Tū kaha means we stand strong.
96 Tū kotahi means we stand unified.

97 Tūrangawaewae means a place where each have a right to stand and belong.

U35 means any member of the Union who is under 35 years of age on 1 February.

99 Whāinga means values. The Union whāinga guide our relationships and behaviours, setting our vision of how we intend to work together: Tū kotahi, tū kaha; Awhi atu, awhi mai; Ngā piki, ngā heke, and Tātou, tātou e.

100 Whanaungatanga means to build positive and enduring relationships with each other. One way in which this manifests is by establishing a tuākanatēina system operating on a philosophy where tuākana (usually more experienced union members) awhi, tautoko, and manaaki their tēina (sometimes less experienced or new union members).

101 Worksite means a place of employment which may cover several physical locations (worksites this includes campuses, hubs, mobile working environments, online working, offices) but where there is a common employer.
