The new entity be informed and make your voice heard

TEU is working to ensure that our members are informed and involved during this merger process. See TEU's submission to your council and FAQs for members by visiting our website at teu.ac.nz, and clicking on 'Branches', then either 'Waiariki' or 'BoPP'.

The union represents academic staff at both BoPP and Waiariki. We are negotiating with both chief executives to ensure members' job security and employment rights are protected during the likely merger.

BECOME A MEMBER NOW BY JOINING TEU TO:

- Make your voice heard
- Enforce and protect your employment terms and conditions through the TEU Academic Collective Agreement
- Guarantee effective individual and collective legal representation and advocacy

YOU CAN JOIN:

- Online at teu.ac.nz or
- Complete enclosed form and send to return address (postage paid)
